

Merry Christmas and Happy 2007 Wishes from the Wolbert Family!

Season's Greetings. Hope all is well with you and your family. Everyone, Emily, Lisa, Sarah, Miki, and Bob, enjoyed another happy, healthy year. We've lived in our "new" house for over four years now.

We were able to celebrate Grandpa's 80TH birthday on the Pacific, aboard a cruise ship. Although we endured the inevitable weight gain from enjoying excessive amounts of great food, we unanimously agreed that we could easily acclimate to life aboard a luxury liner.

Emily (8) attends third grade. She writes: "I have a cat named Moon, who is cute and nice. I enjoy school and have made lots of friends this year. I am learning to play the violin.

Lisa (12): This year, I did many fun things. One of the things I enjoyed doing was joining the school band playing the clarinet.

Sarah (15): This has been a long year, as usual. After our cruise, it snowed numerous times here. Our entire family went sledding and snowball fighting, and had the most fun in chilly winter we ever had. On a warmer note, during the summer we went to Japan, but this time I had the opportunity of getting a part-time job and was employed for the first time in my life. Recently, I joined my high school's Lacrosse team (it's fun). I hope all of you have a nice Christmas and a Happy New Year:

Miki (last year she claimed to be 22, so now she must be ... 22?): This year we had lots of snow. In fact it lasted more than a week. We were able to build large snowmen, go sledding, and have snowball fights. I didn't enjoy shoveling it off the driveway, however! I am now taking beginning violin lessons from my teacher, Emily.

Bob (older than dirt), an independent consultant for the semiconductor industry, is dedicating his spare time to yard work and maintaining his radio antenna "farm".
